

The Inspector by Nicolai Gogol

A spectacular presentation! The High School students of Mrs Nahass' drama class did a great job with this very famous play. We were transported to a little town in Russia in the 1830's:

And Ivan Obodovsky, being Ukrainian like the author Gogol, was supreme in the role that you love to hate.

Also to be remembered was when Christian Samra laughed and laughed, triggering laughter everywhere:

At the end, the enthusiastic cast literally ate the sets and props.
